

THE ULTIMATE NEVER HAVE I EVER LIST

200 Questions to get to know your friends

Who hasn't played this game?

Whether you got drunk from it, wanted to show off, or figure out where your friends are in their sex life. This game is legendary for showing each other your darkest secrets, you hope they won't remember the next day.

Just like you, we played this game over and over, until we ran out of questions. So we came up with more questions. We started writing them down and created our own list. Then we wanted to turn it into a drinking game. So we came up with rules! At one point it turned into a biggest dick contest, so there had to be a scoreboard. We've added it all for you!

All these fun nights have led us to create this Ultimate Never Have I Ever List website. To write our list, we found inspiration in Rice Purity Test, Tijgerpunt, and a lot of our own drunken creative thinking.

We want to thank Mermaid Mysteries for sponsoring us in realizing this project.

Have fun!

THE RULES

The group decides whether one player can be game master and read out all the questions or everyone in the group can read a question after the other.

1. You did it – You drink!
2. Storytime – Any player can call you out on sharing the story. If you don't want to tell the story, you do a dare!
3. Guess Who – Around every tenth question, there's a Guess Who. Here you don't drink whether you've ever done it. At the count of three, all players point at the friend who they think has most likely done the deed. The one with the most fingers pointed at them tells if he or she has ever done it. If the group is right, the one with the most fingers takes a sip for every finger. If the group is wrong, the pointers all take as many sips.
4. No one has ever done it – Spin the bottle for who needs to drink!
